especially skilled at quickly creating the exact shade match and camouflage color correction. I remained calm in the most frantic of situations, and had an uplifting effect on those around me, it's my super power! It was a great team and we got along very well. I really enjoyed being on this set. This was a 16 day shoot in varying environments, where I had to react quickly to dramatic weather, monitor adjustments and follow Director requests. On multiple occasions I also provided makeup services for Director Cane, for interviews with Fox News and regional press. This involved covering bruising which occurred during the filming of 'The Heavy Hitters' Gemelli's baseball drama series, all involved were impressed with my skill.
